

I very strongly oppose relaxing the ownership rules. My local stations have shown little response to local needs, and are duplicating what information they do present.